

Microsoft Access Developer III

Prime Insurance Company is seeking driven, educated, experienced team players who possess a strong business aptitude and Information Technology knowledge

Essential Duties & Responsibilities

- Codes, tests, debugs, and documents programs, and enhances existing programs to ensure that production systems continue to meet user needs.
- Coordinates interface with user management regarding project status, direction and user needs to promote an environment of user cooperation and satisfaction.
- Coordinates with the testing process through test review and analysis, test witnessing and certification of software.
- Contributes to the development of high-level system architecture documents and detailed design specifications to serve as a guide for system/application development.
- May assist with scheduling, determining manpower requirements, and estimating costs to project completion to meet user requirements.
- Maintains a high-level understanding of industry application development best practices, tools, programming languages and techniques. Keeps current with new developments in the information technology industry and assists in the development and implementation of standards and methodologies at the organizational and departmental levels.
- Coordinates with analysts and consultants in the design and development of new software applications.
- Works with external software suppliers to coordinate software integration and resolution of problems.

Required Experience

- 5-8 years experience developing Microsoft Access applications.
- Strong working knowledge of VBA functions and macros.
- Strong working knowledge of Microsoft SQL Server, including SSRS.
- Good understanding of JSON and RESTful services.
- Strong working knowledge of source control systems including git.
- Knowledge of best practices for the full software development life cycle, including coding standards, code reviews, source control management, build processes, testing and operations.

Submit your resume to dev-resume@primeis.com